

Call to artists

Would you like to see your artwork featured in a Spruill Center for the Arts print publication like the catalog, postcard or online? Increase your exposure and your professional opportunities by entering our pool of talented artists to be considered for inclusion in our publications.

Please make sure your submission follows our submission guidelines, any images not following these guidelines will not be considered.

Submission guidelines:

- 1) You must be a student and/or instructor at The Spruill Center.
- 2) Submit via email to registration@spruillarts.org
- 3) No more than three images per quarter
- 4) Meet the quarterly deadline for artwork
- 5) Images requirements:
 - Either .jpg .tif .png format allowed
 - Resolution: 300 dpi (no exceptions, low resolution images are not eligible for print)
 - Images need to be properly cropped without any background interference (sculpture or other 3-D work images require neutral one-color-background)
 - Image names MUST follow the following naming convention: LastnameArtist-title.xxx (where xxx is your jpg, tif or png)
 - Include your name, media, dimensions and the title of each piece in the email

Failure to comply with the requirements above will result in your email being discarded. Improperly submitted artwork will not be considered. Reviews will be done on a quarterly basis and artists will be notified by email once selected.
